

Solvent Drum Dispensing Guidelines:

The 20-l metal drums with flammable solvent content can rapidly generate highly flammable vapors and explosive solvent-air mixtures. Therefore, they need to be grounded with the orange grounding clamps during the dispensing process in order to avoid static electricity discharges. Furthermore, dispensing of metal drums should only be done in our specially designed solvent rooms.

